Writing

I have a question for you. Do you believe in magic? I'm sure the majority of people would say that it's ridiculous to believe in something like that.

On the one hand, they would be right. But on the other hand, it's really great to believe in something special.

Books about Harry Potter which was written by J.K. Rowling make people to be sure what real friendship means. These books show adventures of three friends (Harry, Ron, Hermione) who get through all difficulties together. They've always been near to each other. In my opinion, the next generation of English learners needs to know how friendship should look like.

These tales are full of courage characters. For example: Harry wasn't afraid of Volan-de-Mort and could to resist him. I guess, it's totally important to meet your fears face-to-face.

These characters should be remembered for their loyalty to their school. In last two books they gave up everything to protect Hogwarts.

I think the statue of these three young wizards should look like they are ready for everything. They should hold their wizard sticks as well.

So, I hope that I could proof
the importance of putting up the statue of three characters from an English-language book.
